PRICE TWO CENTS

COUNCIL TO SELECT SUITABLE PLACE TO DISPLAY BEAUTIFUL SERVICE FLAG PRESENTED BY THE NARBERTH SCHOOL CHILDREN

In last week's account of the Narberth Park Fete mention was omitted of the service flag which was presented to the borough by the students of the Narberth Public School. This flag was purchased with the savings of the girls and boys.

It is of the standard design and of liberal dimensions. In the centre is a large blue star bearing the number 143. Above this are two gold stars, in honor of the Narberth boys who gave up their lives on the battlefields of France.

The presentation was made by George Starr Rose, president of the high school senior class, during the exercises held on the lawn immediately following the parade, his speech being as follows:

"The students of the Narberth school are proud of the boys and men of the community who are now wearing the uniform of Uncle Sam. Mindful of their patriotism and self-sacrifice, we are desirous of giving some token showing our sympathies with the spirit which prompted our big brothers to join the military and naval forces of our beloved country, and have decided to present to the borough a service flag. It is therefore my pleasure, as a representative of the school children of Narberth, to deliver to your keeping this small token which carries with it the deepest patriotic sentiments of the donors and is also intended to convey our love and gratitude to those whom the stars on the flag represent."

On behalf of the borough of Narberth the gift was accepted by Mr. W. R. D. Hall, president of Councils, in a graceful and patriotic reply. It is hoped that the borough will make suitable arrangements for flying the flag in a conspicuous place, preferably where it may be seen from the windows of passing railroad trains.

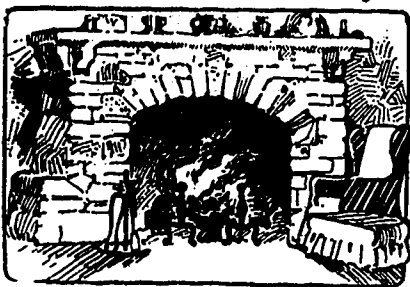

At the meeting to be held next Monday evening the Borough Council will discuss, and if possible at that time decide upon, a suitable place for displaying the beautiful new borough service flag presented to Council by the Narberth school children at the Patriotic Fete.

The flag, which is one of the finest possessed by any community in these parts, is 10x15 feet. It shows a large star bearing the number 143, for all the Narberth boys who have joined the colors, and two gold stars for two young men from our town who have made the supreme sacrifice of their lives in the great war.

The flag was bought with the pennies, nickels and dimes contributed by all the children in the Narberth school; was presented to the borough by George Rose in behalf of his schoolmates and accepted by W. R. D. Hall, president of Council.

THE FIRESIDE

Betty Baxter's Gossip

Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Ridge and Miss Ethel have taken apartments at The Sedgley for the winter.

Miss Helen M. Read, of Fordham, New York, is the guest of Mrs. Joseph H. Nash, of Merion avenue.

Mrs. Howard C. Pierce, of Worcester, Massachusetts, formerly of Narberth, visited several of her old friends here last week.

Cadet A. Park Shaw, U. S. air service, of Pittsfield, Massachusetts, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Fenno over the week-end.

A number of persons have asked for Narberth's quota for the Fourth Liberty Loan. The Main Line Committee advises us it is $100,000, and not less than 642 subscribers.

Canby P. Mecke, of 111 Iona avenue, has been made First Lieutenant in the Quartermasters Corps at Fort Monroe, Va. His friends in Narberth congratulate him on his promotion.

Volunteers wanted to make influenza masks at the Red Cross workroom. If you have not answered any appeal to help make compresses, bandages, etc., for our boys, respond to this urgent appeal.

Owing to the prevalence of influenza, the "silver tea" to be given by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. at the residence of Mrs. Chas. E. Kraemer, Windsor and Forrest avenues, Thursday, October 10, will be postponed until further notice.

Sorrow has once more visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Curlett, Essex avenue. On September 26, William G. Curlett, aged 11 years, was taken suddenly ill with the epidemic, and died Thursday, September 26. On October 5, their son, Walter S. Curlett, aged 12 years, died of pneumonia.

No. 16 girl in the Juvenile class (4½-6 years), in charge of Mrs. R. J. Hunt. In the baby parade, has not as yet called up Mrs. C. T. Moore for her prize. If any one knows who had that number, will they kindly address Mrs. C. T. Moore, Nar. 675-M. The child disappeared in the crowd after the judges had taken her number, but before they got her name. If the person does not call up to claim the $1 of Thrift Stamps they will be handed over to Mr. Joseph H. Nash as part of the proceeds of the Fete.

POSTPONED

On account of the recent order of the Board of Health the N. H. S. Alumni Play has been postponed until October 26.

EARL F. SMITH

Narberth mourns for one of her popular and promising young men, Earl Fletcher Smith, whose death occurred 4.30 Tuesday morning at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Smith, 211 Elm Terrace.

Earl, who was 23 years of age, enlisted about seven months ago, and went to San Antonio, Texas; then to Buffalo Aeroplane Construction Company's plant in that city. At the time of his illness, he was home on his first furlough, and it was two days after his arrival in Narberth that his illness first became apparent. Up to that time he had been in excellent health, his camp life having benefited him a great deal physically.

In Narberth, and elsewhere, Earl had a host of friends, and he was an ardent worker in many pursuits of our local organizations.

His death comes as a great shock to us all, and the loss by his untimely death is irreparable.

SOME SAFEGUARDS

Twelve Influenza "Don'ts" Issued by General Gorgas

Twelve safeguards against the spread of Spanish influenza were issued on Saturday by Surgeon General Gorgas, as follows:

Smother your coughs and sneezes; others do not want the germs which you would throw away.

Your nose, not your mouth, was made to breathe through. Get the habit.

Remember the three Cs—a clean mouth, a clean skin and clean clothes. Try to keep cool when you walk and warm when you ride and sleep. Open the windows always at home at night; at the office when practicable.

Food will win the war if you give it a chance; help by choosing and chewing your food well.

Your fate may be in your own hands; wash your hands before eating.

Don't let the waste products of digestion accumulate—drink a glass or two of water on getting up.

Don't use a napkin, towel, spoon, fork, glass or cup which has been used by another person and not washed.

Avoid tight clothes, tight shoes, tight gloves—seek to make nature your ally, not your prisoner.

When the air is pure, breathe all of it you can—breathe deeply.

The Surgeon General of the Army.

TO OUR READERS

With this issue Our Town enters its fifth year, there having been two hundred and eight consecutive issues published weekly, and every one of them on time. We are going to try to make Our Town a better paper than ever before.

Are you going to help us to do it?

AN OPEN LETTER

To the Members and Friends of the Narberth Civic Association:

Failure to have our regular meeting, due to the influenza epidemic, makes it necessary to write the thanks which, as president of the association, I wished to express verbally.

The Patriotic Fete of 1918 is now an event of the past. Its success financially will be announced through the columns of Our Town by the Financial Committee. Its success in every other respect needs no further comment. It was such a success because individuals and organizations alike put their shoulders to the wheel and sinking every selfish thought in the thought of the general good, gave generously of time, material and money.

It is befitting to bestow thanks where thanks is due and to have it published in our paper to the following:

Mr. Gara and his able staff of publicity artists, Cabrey Cole, Muschamp, Fuchs, Jacobs and Sickles—whose good work in paper, poster and program brought so many to the grounds. The poster design by Mr. Fuchs and the splendid tree planting charter by Mr. Sickles deserve special mention.

Mr. Edgar, whose difficult job it was to haul booths, chairs, tents, pianos and supplies to and from the park, and whose efforts were so well backed up by the generous help of George Supplee, Fred Walzer, the Autocar Co., who assisted in getting the musicians on the job, and Mr. Walton. Some troubles in getting material back to their owners can be traced to the influenza and for any such delays we ask pardon. Thanks is also due Mr. Edgar for the work done on the games.

A BIG TAX CHECK

On Tuesday morning George Gane Treasurer of Lower Merion Township, went to Norristown and paid to the County Treasurer a check for $246,908.36 for State and county taxes collected by him up until September 15. This is the largest tax check ever paid into the county treasury at one time and shows that the majority of Lower Merion residents are prompt in paying their taxes.

Have you a surplus supply of vegetables in your garden? If so, they will be greatly appreciated at the Holiday House. No amount is too small to send. Please leave them before noon, any day, on the back porch at 110 N. Essex avenue, the home of Mrs. Harry W. Derby.

WOMEN'S COMMUNITY CLUB NOTES

An account of the twenty-third annual convention of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women to be held in York, Pa., on October 16 and 17, is given below with a synopsis of the program for these days.

It is hoped many members of the club may find it possible to attend this meeting, if not for both days, at least one. The trip is sufficiently short to be made comfortably in one day. The fare from Philadelphia one way is $3.03. Trains leaving Philadelphia as early as 8.10 A. M., continuing at intervals during the day.

Will members wishing to attend please submit their names at an early date as possible to Mrs. C. P. Fowler.

Survey of Federation Program

That there will be no falling off in the attendance at the twenty-third annual meeting of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women, in York, is attested by the full bookings at the hotels for the two days of the convention. A musical luncheon will be given October 16. This will be in charge of the music committee, Mrs. Frederick W. Abbott, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Edward Philip Lynch and the Navy Recreation Bureau. In the meeting that day following reception of reports, the home economics committee will present a discussion on "Women and Clothes," and the legislative committee will introduce John Ihlder to discuss the Housing Code and Kenneth L. M. Pray to tell of the State budget system. Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt will speak in the period allotted to the suffrage committee.

In the night session of Wednesday P. P. Claxon, United States Commissioner of Education, will speak on "Education and Its Wartime Relationships."

The patriotic service of the Federation will be reported in the session Thursday morning by the chairman, Mrs. John E. Stocker. Mrs. S. B. Jarden, of the health and hygiene committee, will present Dr. Jessica B. Peixotto, who will tell of the children's bureau. Mrs. Imogene Oakley will give the message on salvage from the Red Cross.

Conservation and Reform

During the period given to the civil service reform committee, of which Mrs. Oakley is chairman, William A. Bird will speak on such reform as a war measure.

The committee on industrial conditions, juvenile court and literature will make reports in this session, which will open with an address by Dr. Filbert Roth, of the forestry department, University of Michigan. The conservation committee, of which Miss Mary Blakiston is chairman, is in charge of this section of the meeting.

The afternoon of Thursday promises an interesting meeting. Miss Anna MacDonald, of the Pennsylvania State Library, will tell of "War Library Work." "Mobilizing the Mind of America" is the topic Arthur E. Bestor will present, under the auspices of the civics committee, Mrs. H. C. Cochran, chairman. "Overseas As I Saw It" will be Dr. George Earle Raiguel's topic.

Dr. John R. Mott will be the principal speaker at the dinner.

Officers and chairmen Woman's Community Club 1918-1919: President, Mrs. C. P. Fowler; vice-president, Mrs. C. W. Young; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Edward C. Batchelor; recording secretary, Mrs. H. A. Jacobs; treasurer, Mrs. Edgar H. Cockrill.

Chairmen—Food conservation and production, Mrs. A. B. Ross; legislation, Mrs. William H. Russell; music, Mrs. Joseph Barclay; library, Mrs. Edward Schaubert; hospitality, Mrs. Charles A. Verna.

Owing to the epidemic prevalent in our vicinity the club meeting which was to have been held on October 8 has been postponed. Announcement will be made later.

Have you a surplus supply of vegetables in your garden? If so, they will be greatly appreciated at the Holiday House. No amount is too small to send. Please leave them before noon, any day, on the back porch at 110 N. Essex avenue, the home of Mrs. Harry W. Derby.

Dawson—The facial features plainly indicate character and disposition. In selecting your wife were you governed by her chin?

Spenlow—No, but I have been ever since we were married.

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

To the Editor of Our Town:

The Narberth chapter of the Main Line Fishing Club held its monthly session at New Gretna last Thursday. There were eight doughty fishermen in the party which left Narberth in autos at 2 A. M., arriving at the shore about 6. It takes a little nerve to climb out of a nice warm bed at 1.30 in the morning, especially if you haven't been next to the hay for more than two or three hours.

Bob Savill, who said he had been sitting up with a sick friend, retired at 12.45 and fixed his alarm for 1.30. Some nut? Well, I should say so!

Bill Cummer slept pretty nearly all day Wednesday, so that he'd be in good trim, and believe me, he was.

The party brought home about 150 fish; at least there were about thirty weakfish and the others all about the size of sardines, but, to avoid argument with certain thickheads, I'll call them all "fish."

As is well known to all salt water anglers, a weakfish is timid and will fight shy of a noise. As I have already intimated that Cummer was present, I needn't explain the light catch of weak.

Up to the time for quitting the fishing grounds no calamity had been visited on the party, but that condition was too good to last. As the boat was making its way back to the dock, Bill asked the pilot to allow him to steer it. Of course, something had to happen then—and it did. In a few moments the crowd found itself stranded on a mud bank, but even at that Bill didn't notice that the boat wasn't moving. He kept looking straight ahead, perfectly oblivious of the mess he had caused. Little Jeff has nothing on him. He said he thought the boat steered like a Ford, adding, "In a Ford, if you want to go to the right, you turn the wheel in that direction, but in a boat you have to turn the wheel the wrong way if you want to go to the right, and, of course, I got all mixed up." The "bum pilot of Bass river" lost his job right there and after awhile the boat was pushed into the deep water and the worst was over.

A meeting of the club was held shortly after landing at the dock and it was voted unanimously that Cummer be sentenced to wear a muffler and handcuffs on future expeditions.

Hoover has placed no restriction on the prayer "damn the Kaiser," so it may be used freely and with great feeling instead of an extra spoonful of sugar in your coffee.

Public opinion seems to be very generally in favor of the men who took drastic action with an automobile slacker in Lansdowne, and there has been some talk of repeating the dose in other places where the Government's request and the wishes of the public are being deliberately ignored.

Very few locally owned cars have been seen hereabouts on Sundays, which speaks well for the patriotism of Narberth, but it is to be hoped that in the future this burg will show itself one hundred per cent. American. Certainly no one wants to witness a duplication of the Lansdowne incident in Narberth.

August Evergreen has a card hanging on the wall of the post office which reads: "Ten dollars reward for information leading to the detection of the party who stole my horse and field corn in quantity from my lot on Windsor avenue."

Have you ever noticed a horse in that lot?

Cub.

PEACH STONES ARE WANTED

Peach stones are wanted by the government. These pits make the best charcoal for the soldier's gas masks and they are needed. Kindly clean them and leave them in box at back of 112 Essex avenue, home of Mrs. W. W. Cameron.

A prize will be given to the boy or girl who collects the largest number of these stones.

SUFFRAGE NEWS

The October meeting of the Narberth Branch of the Woman Suffrage party will not be held on Friday because of the order which prohibits meetings during the epidemic.

The defeat in the Senate last week of the Suffrage amendment, while discouraging, does not mean that the Suffragists are beaten. With the President and so many of the ablest men and women in the land back of them, the Suffragists will work harder than ever.

CRAWLING FOR PENANCE

A Buddhist priest who has been eight years on the way to Lhasa expects to arrive there eight years hence. He started, says the Montreal Gazette, from the northeast of Peking, and when met by an English missionary he had completed two thousand miles—about half his journey. He does not walk, but crawls, or, rather, he combines both methods. On his hands he wears boards; on his knees he wears pads. He lies full length upon the ground; then gets up and walks to where his fingers had reached; then prostrates himself and measures afresh.

He is under a self-imposed vow, and believes that if he crawls in that manner to the Tibetan holy city Buddha will forgive him his sins and bestow honors upon him.

Policeman—What is your business?
Prisoner—I am a locksmith.
Policeman—Well, what were you doing in that gambling house we just raided?

Prisoner—I was making a bolt for the door just as you came in!

A flea and a fly in a flue
Were caught. So what could they do?
Said the fly: "Let us flee."
Said the flea: "Let us fly."
So they flew through a flaw in the flue.

RED CROSS NOTES

The Narberth Red Cross responded to the hurried call for influenza masks which are worn by the doctors and nurses, by making 305 masks on Thursday night and Friday. On Friday alone 230 masks were completed in the Red Cross room. Mrs. Rea complimented Narberth on the amount of work done, as this was the greatest number made in one day by any of the Main Line towns. The nearest approach to Narberth's record was 150.

Thanks are due to the women of Narberth who so willingly answered the call for this work.

NOTICE

Physicians of Pennsylvania take heed! In Massachusetts pneumonia is less prevalent among influenza patients in canvas tents than in hospitals or private houses. Fewer nurses, doctors and attendants sicken under canvas.

THE CANCER MYSTERY

It is well known that the occurrence of cancer varies considerably in different localities and in different occupations. In "The Cancer Problem: A Statistical Study," Mr. Charles E. Green of Edinburgh, in attempting to find something that will explain the difference in frequency, has critically examined the local distribution of cancer in different districts, especially in Scotland, and the conditions that prevail in those districts. He finds that cancerous districts, as a rule, are particularly associated with the use of coal as fuel, whereas the noncancerous districts burn wood or peat. Thus, in Nairnshire, which has the highest mortality from cancer in Scotland, the deaths for the last ten years are confined to a definite area, and the rest of the county (one hundred square miles) is entirely free. In the cancerous area coal is the chief, if not the only, fuel, but in the noncancerous area peat is universally used. The same thing is true of other parts of the country. In the Orkneys, which as a whole have a cancer mortality slightly above that for Scotland, Stenness has a cancer death rate of one in forty-two from all causes, and peat is the only fuel; but in Sanday, where coal alone is burned, the cancer death rate is one in nine from all causes. But there is one anomaly. In Birsay and in St. Andrews, in the Orkneys, the cancer mortality is virtually as great as it is in Sanday, yet peat only is burned. Investigation showed that the peat used in these two districts is peculiar, being hard and stony and having a high content of sulphur-like coal. From those and other facts the author concludes that cancer is more likely to occur in families where the fuel contains a large proportion of sulphur.

HELPING ALONG

There is joy to be found, if we care to look round,
As we mix with the world's busy throng;
If we're willing each day to go out of our way
Just to help one another along.

In the turmoil and strife of this workaday life
Where the weak must give way to the strong;
We can learn 'mid such scenes what real happiness means
Just by helping each other along.

Week in and week out as we journey about,
Let this be our burden of song:
To make gladness complete and life passing sweet
For those who need helping along.

Concert Director—Although the audience is so small, consisting as it does of only one person, it is nevertheless, our intention to go through the whole program.

The Audience—Well, get it over as quick as you can, guv'nor; I'm the caretaker.

Querulous Old Lady (to fed-up sailor)—And tell me, why have they let you have a holiday at such a time?
Jack—'Ollday? A minesweeper 'as to come into port sometimes to 'ave its brushes cleaned!

HE COULD NOT READ

There is a man in Bozeman, Montana, the New York Tribune says, who will probably go through life bewailing the injustice of the draft board that certified him for service in spite of the fact that he presented a letter written by his wife to prove that he had a dependent family. Here is the letter:

Dear United States Army—My husband ast me to write a recommendation that he supports his family. He cannot read so don't tell him. Just take him. He ain't no good to me. He ain't done nothing but play a fiddle and drink lemme essence since I married him, eight years ago, and I got to feed seven kids of his. Maybe you can get him to carry a gun. He's good on squirrels and eatin'. Take him and welcum. I need the grub and his bed for the kids. Don't tell him this, but take him.

HOW TO KEEP FLOWERS FRESH

An excellent authority on floriculture says that when flowers have become much wilted and faded, plunge their stems into scalding water to one-third their length, being careful that the tender blossoms do not come in contact with the water.

This drives the sap down into the flowers and causes them to revive in a very short time. Next put them into cold water, after first cutting off the dried portion of the stem. Florists have a way of plunging or sprinkling their flowers and then shaking them out until dry, when they may be laid carelessly on the counter, or if put in some cool place, and the sprinkling occasionally repeated, they will keep fresh for a long time.

Perhaps every one does not know that wet sand is much better for vases and dishes in which flowers are arranged than water, as the stems are apt to decay much sooner in the latter.

Never leave flowers in a very warm room, in a draft or in the sunshine. Do not gather flowers from the garden when the sun is shining on them, but in the early morning or after the sun has gone down at night. Avoid pulling or yanking them off, as this injures both plant and flowers, but cut them with a sharp knife or scissors, and be sure to give them as long a stem as possible.

A student greatly annoyed the professor of natural sciences by asking foolish questions.

One day, after he had interrupted the lecturer several times, he said: "How long can an animal live without brains?"

"Well," was the professor's reply, "I really do not know, Mr. K—. How old are you?"

AN OPEN LETTER

Mr. Wohlert for his donations of trees.

Mr. Braden for his good words at the tree planting, Rev. Frank Gray and the Narberth Home Guard for their help in making the ceremony in connection with the planting of the trees one long to be remembered.

Mr. Walton Wentz and his able assistant, Verl Pugh, who worked unceasingly to get us the much needed electric light. To Mr. McKinney, Mr. Cabrey and Mr. Giffillan, who helped so much in securing current, and to all those who loaned Japanese lanterns. The latter helped turn the park into a fairyland.

Mr. Hillegas who, with his committee, planned the arrangement of the different exhibits, and, lest we forget, turned out to be a wonderful auctioneer on the closing night. As a field assistant to do any and everything, "Horace" is surely there.

Mr. Joyce, superintendent of the Gibson estate, for his generous donations of men and lawn mowers to clean up the park so that it could be used. Also those volunteers who gave their time and muscle to make everything shipshape for the exhibits.

Mr. Augustus Loos and his two committees. One in securing materials and constructing booths, and here thanks is due Mr. Smedley and his men; Mrs. Odell for securing booths from the Catholic Church at Ardmore; the H. W. Johns-Manville Company for the white bunting with which most of the booths were trimmed; Messrs. Loos, Shand and Meehan for donations of rough lumber, and every organization in Narberth for the loan of tables, chairs, platforms, etc., which were so necessary a part of a fete of this kind. The second committee had to do with the music. Thanks is surely due Messrs. Rudolph, Patten, Nash and Mrs. Barclay and Miss Wright for their good co-operation. Much of the success of the "Fete" is due the boys of the St. Francis de Sales Band, and to our song leaders, Miss Staley and Mr. Thomas. The soloists helped to make both evenings enjoyable and we owe much to Mr. William Beatty, Sergeant Etore Verna and Miss Shoble.

Mr. Fletcher Stites and Mr. Haws for securing such excellent speakers, and a special mention to Mrs. Young, of the British booth, for the speakers secured for her booth. Narberth was honored by the presence of such men as Captain Swaab and Lieutenant Brie, not to forget our own Mr. Braden and Fletcher himself.

Mrs. James G. Foote and her committee which includes the entire faculty and members of the school board. If any medals or crosses of honor were to be bestowed at this time they would surely fall to this group. Mrs. Foote took a small idea suggested to her by your president and worked out a pageant which was wonderful in its care, its symbolism and the patriotism which breathed forth from each part of its make-up. There was a mighty lot of work and sacrifice bundled up in each picture and that is why it turned out to be the biggest feature of the "Fete." No wonder that Narberth can point to her schools with the greatest pride.

Mrs. Clifford T. Moore and her committee. Another medal is due Mrs. Moore for the splendid turnout of babies, twins and special floats (with babies on board of course). It would have done Teddy good to see such a turnout and the judges, Miss Shober, Mrs. Millere and Mrs. Snyder, are to be congratulated on their findings. It was a hard job to pick the winners.

Mrs. Cameron and her committee for their good work on the moving pictures. The delay in the speakers' program rather shortened the picture program, but this does not in any way detract from the good work done.

Mr. Hill and the "Narberth police force" for his good work in guarding the grounds, directing traffic and leading the pageant and the baby parade to a successful ending.

The Narberth Home Guard, who in their natty uniforms, added so much to the patriotic idea surrounding the "Fete." Their part in the tree planting ceremony added much to its impressiveness and all did fine work in policing the grounds, keeping traffic from the parades and directing automobile parking.

The Narberth Fire Company for the fire run staged on Saturday night. The time made was excellent and from the manner these lads put out the blazing remains of Markie's sleigh, we can rest at ease when it comes to fire risks in Narberth. We also wish to thank the company for chairs and tables which they loaned for the occasion.

Mr. Patten and the Boy Scouts of Narberth. We owe much to Mr. Patten for bringing the Scout contest to Narberth, for working out the idea of the service flag presented to the borough by the children of the Narberth school and for the help which the Narberth Scouts gave to the various committees during the "Fete" in carrying message, securing subscriptions to Our Town, etc.

Miss Fanny Loos and her committee for securing so many patronesses to lend their moral and financial support.

And now a word of appreciation to those individuals and organizations whose work at the different booths, with the securing of supplies and their sale, was so successfully done.

The ladies of the Baptist Church under Miss Simpson. There was something of somebody else's for somebody.

Mr. Ligrest and his troupe of artists. Here was a wonderful musical treat and there were very few at the "Fete" who missed it, and they were the workers at the booths. We hope to hear more from these artists. We almost forgot the fruit the music was so good. The artists were Sergeant Verna, Louis Rocelli, Mr. Herbert Mertel, Mr. Michael Casaccio, Miss Marie Casaccio, Professor Papalardo and Mr. Gliberto and his mandolin orchestra.

Organizations of St. Margaret's Church. The very day the Good Ship

Mercy was launched this part of the "Fete" was an assured success. The Knights of Columbus gave us a fine speaker on Friday night, Mr. McNulty, and at the ship one could secure "by chance" anything from silver candlesticks to a leg of lamb or a real live piggy. There were very few who did not take a chance and these few were sick with the influenza. Cabrey will get them next time.

The Kappa Sigma Phi Sorority. Here were pretty girls, pretty costumes, Japanese tea in a Japanese garden. Surely one of the most attractive spots in the park.

Miss Gertrude Wright and her troupe of fortune tellers told many a truth which may later come true. Who knows?

Mrs. Edward Odell. Twice thanks for two very excellent dinners served by a most able group of ladies, hostesses who knew that something hot and well served was much needed at a "Fete" like ours. The only ones who didn't say anything about it were those who eat but two meals a day, breakfast and lunch.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church under Mrs. Nickerson. Good grabs for the kiddies and so good that we found most of the grown-ups trying it.

The organizations of the Methodist Church under Mrs. Siler and Rev. Dr. Gray and a host of others who had on tap all the good things which should be found at a country store and many little delicacies like hot dogs which the average country store never thought of.

The Girl Scouts under Miss Doris von Culin. Apples on a stick sold by a pretty girl. What could be more tempting. They "took," as you could tell by the number of wood skewers (the sticks) left on the grounds.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. under Mr. Bowen and his assistants. The "hut" was one of the features of the "Fete" and everything there was fit.

Bob Patterson, Thornton Grugan, Kirkpatrick, McKell Master Albert Trexler and Mr. Foote, who, with Edgar, engineered the games and gave the Hindenburg line a merry run for its money. Mr. Haws and Mr. Jenkins, who ran the shooting gallery. Surely Bob Patterson is a wonderful salesman. Anything went from a handkerchief to a cabbage.

Delta Sigma Sorority under Miss Withrow for engineering the dances. This is a long "thank you," but not nearly adequate considering all that was done by those who decided to make it a "go."

In closing let me personally thank those who in the program were indicated as field marshals: Messrs. Gara, Edgar, Loos, Hillegas, Lanahan, Wentz, Clegg and a couple of volunteers, Mr. Perce and Mr. W. P. Nash. Nothing was too difficult—no detail was too small—they were always ready with ideas, with their time and their energy to put through the program as laid out. Also a separate thanks to Mr. Wipf, who acted as scout on the day of the parade and used up considerable gas chasing horses for floats, directing the moving of pianos and keeping your president in touch with the various portions of the parade.

If any have been omitted from this letter it is unintentional. The Narberth Patriotic Fete goes down in the history of the town as a success. The people who made it such were those who gave wholeheartedly of their time, their energy, their ideas, their money and their enthusiasm. Narberth's community morale is at a high mark. You have proved it.

Joseph H. Nash,
President Narberth Civic Assn.
October 6, 1918, Narberth, Penna.

LIEUT. E. C. WELLER DEAD

Former Lower Merion High Teacher Is Accident Victim Overseas

Second Lieutenant Elliott C. Weller, formerly athletic director and teacher of mathematics at the Lower Merion High School, Ardmore, is reported as dead from accident in Friday's casualty list.

Announcement of his death was made by B. B. Pennypacker, principal of the school.

Lieut. Weller's home was at Rockwood, Pa. He was well known along the Main Line as "Cav" Weller. He and Charley Kerwood, of Bryn Mawr, an aviator, now in a German prison camp, were inseparable. Both went into the service about the same time, Kerwood going into the flying corps, and Weller into the infantry. The latter won his commission at Fort Oglethorpe and was attached to a national army regiment, enlisted in August of 1917, and was trained at Gettysburg and later at Camp Greene, N. C., where he was assigned to the Machine Gun Battalion of the Fifty-eighth Infantry. Some time ago he was slightly gassed, but recovered and went back to the trenches, only to be struck by a stray bit of shrapnel. He is 23 years old, was a boiler-maker by trade and worked at Baldwin's.
